STATEMENT OF CLAIM

1. The 1st Plaintiff is the Dzaasetse of the Ngleshie Alata Traditional Area and a member of the Okpe Family of Ajumanko Dawuranpong ruling House.
2. The 2nd Plaintiff is the Chief of Armaahman under the James Town Ngleshie Alata Stool of Accra and the Acting President and a member of the Ngleshie Alata Traditional Council.
3. Plaintiffs aver that on the 10th day of September 2024, the 1st Defendant wrote a letter to the 2nd Plaintiff inviting him for a meeting at the Nungua Traditional Council.

4. The Plaintiffs aver that on the 13th Day of September 2024, the 2nd Plaintiff and two others namely; Nii Okudzeman IV and Nii Ayi Okufoubour I heeded the call of the 1st defendant and visited him at his palace.
5. Plaintiffs aver that at the Palace the 1st Defendant attempted to bribe the 2nd Plaintiff to sign the Chieftaincy Declaration form of one Oblempong Wetse Kojo II so he becomes the Paramount Chief of Ngleshie Alata Traditional Area when the 1st Defendant knew the said Oblempong Wetse Kojo II was not the rightful person.
6. Plaintiffs aver that the 1st Defendant who is the chairman of the research committee of the 2nd Defendant institution (Greater Accra Regional House of Chiefs) has been using his position to gazette wrongful persons as Chiefs and creating mayhem in some of the various Traditional Councils within Accra.
7. The 1st Defendant who has a shrewd skill with how the Chieftaincy declaration forms are facilitated and transmitted from the Traditional Council to the National House of Chiefs maliciously together with two others endorsed and transmitted purported Chieftaincy declaration form of one Oblempong Wetse Kojo II to the National House of Chiefs.
8. Plaintiffs aver that the 1st Defendant has formed a cartel in the 2nd Defendant institution and they are using their malicious actions to foment problems within the various Traditional Councils in the Greater Accra Region.
9. Plaintiffs aver that the Defendants are organizing elections to elect various officers into various positions in the 2nd Defendant institution.
10. Plaintiffs avers that the 3rd Defendant as an institution mandated to conduct public elections in Ghana will be at the house to supervise the said elections.
11. Plaintiffs aver that the 1st Defendant has demonstrated traits which do not make him someone who has a proven character to hold the High Position of the President of the Greater Accra Regional House of Chiefs.
12. Plaintiffs aver that even in the absence of elections, the 1st Defendant is not fit to hold such an office since his traits will lead the region into more chieftaincy conflicts.
13. Plaintiffs aver that the actions of the Defendants if allowed will plunge the whole Greater Accra Region into serious chieftaincy disputes and confusion.

14. WHEREFORE Plaintiffs bring this action seeking against the Defendants, the following reliefs:

- a) An order disqualifying the 1st Defendant from participating in the forthcoming elections to be held by the 2nd Defendant.
- b) An order restraining the Defendants from making any acclamation declaring the 1st Defendant as the President of the Greater Accra Regional House of chiefs.
- c) Costs including legal fees.
